

Rich Farmer

Of all his neighbors he had been blessed the most.
About his bountiful crops he could truly boast.
He didn't thank God for his bountiful store,
But was greedy and planning to get even more.

He should about his neighbors cared,
And with them his prosperity shared.
But he thought of little else,
Except future prosperity and pleasure for himself.

The present was good – the future looked better,
For more successful crops he planned to gather,
Tear down the old barns and larger build
“I'll fill them with an even larger yield.”

But then all his future plans went astray
For he heard the voice of the good Lord say,
“Tonight thy soul will be required of thee,
Then these things I provided, whose shall they be?”

Don't let grasping for riches your life control,
You may gain the world but lose your soul.
Seek not riches, but spiritual things
For peace and contentment they surely will bring.

Andrew Newill

A man and his wife attended a dinner party at the home of their friends.
Near the end of the meal, the wife reprimanded her husband.

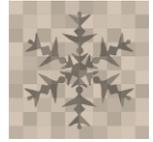

“That's the third time you've gone for dessert,” she scolded. “The hostess must think you're an absolute pig.”

“I don't think so,” he said. “I've been telling her it's for you.”

“Pray without ceasing” - I Thess. 5:17

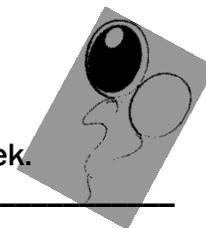

Notes

- WELCOME to all our visitors today! Thank you for worshipping with us.
- One of Collin’s friends was in a terrible car accident this past week. Her name is Courtney Wahl. She suffered a broken sternum and has internal bleeding. She is making progress but still needs prayers.
- There will be a ladies’ Bible class Monday, February 12th from 6:30 – 8:00 at Pam’s home. Ladies of ALL ages are welcome to attend.
- The next craft night will be this Tuesday, February 6th at Karin’s from 6:30 – 8:30. Please let her know if you’re coming.
- The ladies decided to do fruit and cookie boxes for the shut-in and elderly of our congregation as a Valentine’s

Day treat. The sign-up sheet is on the back bulletin board if you’re able to help. The boxes will be assembled on February 11th at 2:00 here at the building. Contributions will be needed on or before then. If you know of someone to give a box to, give the name to Pam.

➤ Randy has created a website for our congregation. The address is countrypreacher.com. He has put a lot of work into this effort. Please take a look!

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Memory Verses of the Week:

And the earth brought forth grass, the herb that yields seed according to its kind, and the tree that yields fruit, whose seed is in itself according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:12

Bible Question of the Week:

Which of the seven churches in Revelation did the Lord not commend?

Last Week’s Question and Answer:

Which woman hid her little nephew from her vengeful grandmother in a storage room in a temple?

Jehoshabeath, 2 Chron. 22:10-11
