

Are We Really Thankful

As time marches on it seems that man is compelled to invent more and more holidays”

While Christians do not belittle the concept of commemoration, they believe there is much to be thankful for that far transcends the mere observation of . . . d a y s a n d m o n t” us in His image (Gen. 1:27), who granted the great blessings of procreation, of dominion the earth. We are daily reminded that the same God who created us still cares for us (1 reason to be thankful? Every moment, every hour, every day. However, proper gratitude faithful obedience to the will of God revealed through Christ (Mat. 17:5; Jn. 14:15; 1 Jn.

Christians are especially thankful for a God who sent His Son to give abundant life Christians remember and give t h a n k s t o t h e F a t h e r w h o h a s q u greatest giver (Jn. 3:16), has taught us how to give (Acts 20:35; 2 Cor. 8:8-15). How, who gave His all for us (Eph. 5:25; 2 Cor. 8:8, 24.). Because Christians are truly thankful they give sufficient of their means for the work of the church, even when it may not They diligently engage in sowing the seed of the word (Lk. 8:11) to the limits of their ability. All mankind has much to be thankful for, but especially we of the household of “Thanksgiving is not thankful at all.

Randall F. Matheny