Notes

- WELCOME to all our visitors today! Thank you for worshipping with us.
- Jennifer Abram, whom Doug asked for prayers, passed away a week ago Friday. Please pray for her husband and young family as they cope with their loss.
- There will be a ladies' meeting today after morning services to finalize the Ladies' Day schedule. Please make plans to stay to contribute your talents. There is a sign-up list on the bulletin board for readings and food preparations.
- The next Ladies' Bible study will be tomorrow, March 9th at Karin's beginning at 6:30. They will be finishing the study on chickens.

God didn't remove the Red Sea. He opened it. Just because God hasn't removed your problem, doesn't mean he won't provide a way through it.

Memory Verse of the Week

When Ehud was dead, the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the Lord. So the Lord sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who dwelt in Harosheth Hagoyim. And the children of Israel cried out to the Lord; for Jabin had nine hundred chariots of iron, and for twenty years he had harshly oppressed the children of Israel.

Judges 4:1-3

Bible Question of the Week

What happened to Zacharias when he doubted Gabriel's message that he would have a son?

Last week's question and answer:

What was the name of the eunuch who delivered Jeremiah from the cistern?

Ebed-melech, Jeremiah 38:10

Like Puzzles? Try this one! - From Paul Thomas' collection

Nineteen of the sixty-six books of the Bible are tucked away in the following paragraph. One is underlined – Luke.

“I once made some remarks about hidden books of the Bible. My brother, Joe liked the puzzle and so did John, but Jon ah'ed and oh'ed about it. It was a lulu. Kept some people actually looking so hard for facts and studying the revelation, they were in a jam. Especially, since the books were not capitalized. Many were roman so much, but the truth finally struck numbers of our readers. To others it was a real job. We want it to be a most fascinating few minutes for you. Yes, there will be some that are easy to spot. Others may require judges to determine. We must also admit it usually takes a minute to find one, and there will be loud lamentations when you see how simple it is. One little lady says she brews coffee while she puzzles her brain.”

Reflections – Ida Mae Couch

Mirror, mirror on the wall,
Do I reflect Christ at all?

Is it God's glory that shines through me
Or selfish ambition and vanity?

Is the image distorted by lies I believed?
Or one full of bitterness and self-pitying?

I could don a mask to cover my face,
The real me to hide, I'm such a disgrace.

But who am I kidding with this silly disguise?
No one can hide from God's eyes.

He sees right through and deceit
And knows my true motives down deeper than deep.

So mirror, mirror on the wall,
Do I reflect Christ at all?

I truly do hope that others can see
Christ's sweet spirit living in me.

Never Despair, God's Always There

In sickness or health
In suffering and pain,
In storm-laden skies,
In sunshine and rain,
God always is there
To lighten your way
And lead you through darkness
To a much brighter day

One day, a grandpa and his grandson went golfing. The grandson played a good game of golf, but his grandpa still gave him tips along the way.

When they got to the eighth hole, the grandpa said, "When I was your age, I would hit the ball right over that tree."

So the grandson hit the ball, and it bumped against the tree and landed not too far from where it had started.

"Of course," said the grandpa, "when I was your age, the tree was only three feet tall."
